

Sayre

The first new history of Sayre
by the Sayre Historical Society in nearly 20 years as part of Arcadia's Postcard History Series*

Only the third book ever published as an all-round history of Sayre's early years. It concentrates mainly on the events of 70 years or more ago.

The 128-page book has 223 postcards or photographs with meticulously researched captions filled with interesting facts.

Ordering or purchasing book(s) with the Sayre Historical Society provides the greatest financial benefit to the Sayre Historical Society.

Books are available for purchase at the Museum,
during December, every Saturday from 10 am to 4 pm, and every Sunday from noon to 4 pm at 103 S. Lehigh Ave., Sayre, PA 18840.

They are also available through the winter in Sayre during regular business hours at the Park Bakery, 122 S. Keystone Ave., Sayre Public Library, 123 S. Elmer Ave., and Carl's Newsstand, 138 Desmond St.

You can also complete the order form on our website,
enclose a check and mail to the museum address.

Tell all your friends and relatives about this book filled with details about each image.
Alert those living out-of-town about this great book.

Plan ahead for Holiday gifts.

Among the photographs included in the book are:

Views of Sayre and the Valley from nearby hilltops...Pine Plains Historical Marker, North Keystone Avenue...John Shepard's Mill in Milltown...Swinging footbridge over Shepard Creek...Early views of the Susquehanna River and Bridge... Flooding of East Sayre by the Susquehanna River

Lehigh Valley Railroad

Passenger Station...Shops...Round House
Footbridge...Tunnel...Police Department

Robert Packer Hospital

Packer Mansion...Guthrie Clinic...Fire of 1933...
Eight- Story New Hospital... Nurses' Residence

Early Churches...Wheelock Chapel...Tabernacle Hill...
Elementary Schools (Fourth Ward, Elmer Avenue, East Side, Milltown)...Sayre High School (1891 school; current school during construction)...Coleman Memorial Parish House and Coleman Field...Erwin Rudolph, World Champion Pool Player...People's Hospital...Minaphe Inn and Tea Room... Sayre Water Company Reservoir...West Sayre c. 1910... Knights of Columbus...Desmond Street Park...Sayre Banks and Local Currency...Harry Hartford and his horse and wagon...Lehigh Band...Boys Band...Sayre Fire Department's Early Fire Companies and Apparatus...Jail in Sayre Borough Hall...Map of Sayre Streets (1901)...Trolley Route Through Sayre...Keystone Park...Views of Downtown Sayre...Oak Grove Park...Rest Cemetery...Island Pond...Howard Elmer Park...Sayre Theatre...Park Hotel...Sayre Elks...Wilbur Hotel...Post Office c. 1928...Desmond Street Clock...Belle Knitting, Blue Swan...World War II Service Flag in Sayre High School Auditorium.

And many, many more photographs with captions that add details to each photograph already worth a thousand words.

Arcadia has strict guidelines for its publications including the number of words allowed for each caption and the number of photographs allowed other than postcards. Sayre was compiled and written exactly following those guidelines. All postcards/photographs are clear and appear in black and white.

*Arcadia Publishing is the leading publisher in the United States of local history books with over 6,500 local history books currently in print. All its books are printed in South Carolina on American-made paper and manufactured entirely in the United States.