

Welcome to the Sayre Historical Society Museum Preview Page.

In this section of the website:

The Sayre Historical Society Museum is preserving and displaying hundreds of thousands of Sayre artifacts. At the Sayre Historical Society Museum, the original ticket booth of the Lehigh Valley Railroad passenger station, Dr. Donald Guthrie's wooden exam table, uniforms, rotating exhibit room, and so much Sayre history.

The Point of View of the Engineer

People of Sayre

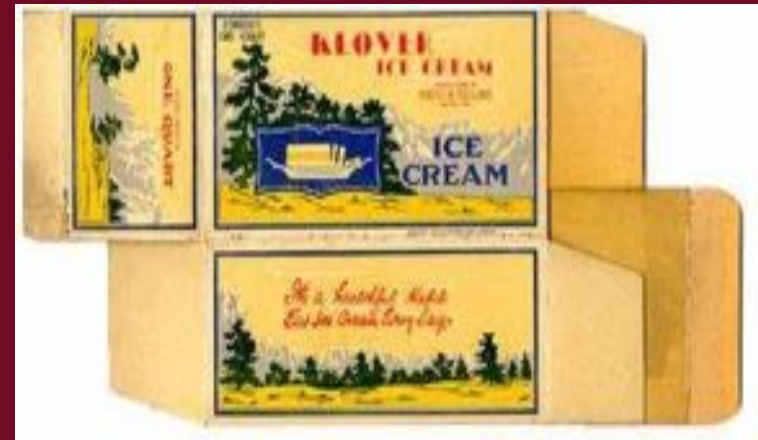

Diorama of Sayre, Pennsylvania

Memorabilia of Past Sayre Businesses

Tools of the Trade

The Passenger Travel Experience

What was it like on the road

What was it like to travel by train with the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Rotating Exhibit at Sayre Historical Society Museum

The Sayre Historical Society Museum has a rotating exhibit room. The rotating room changes twice per year. Each rotating exhibit is particular to specific theme .

Some of the themes include:

- Locally made Vintage quilts
- Firefighters
- World War I
- World War II
- Miscellaneous Collections From the Museum
- The Museum is always FREE OF CHARGE

